

MDHS
Inspiring Health

Would you like support to understand or deal
with your illness?

From diagnosis through to treatment and survivorship and follow up care.

Cancer Resource Nurse

For further information, contact
Maryborough District Health Service

(03) 5461 0333

sbartlett@mdhs.vic.gov.au
75-87 Clarendon Street
Maryborough, VIC 3465

Cancer Resource Nurse

Support.

Guidance .

Journey.

What is a Cancer Resource Nurse?

A Cancer Resource Nurse is an experienced oncology nurse who can support you and your family before, during, or after treatment for cancer.

- A nurse who is able to liaise on behalf of the patient with the treating team to ensure the patients is provided with holistic care
- A support for you, your partner or family
- A nurse is able to provide advice about treatments options, discuss test results.
- A nurse who can offer:
 - Ongoing support and a coordinated approach to your care
 - Accurate and current Information on Cancer
 - Links to community and specialist cancer services
 - Educational sessions for patients and health professionals

What is the role of the Cancer Resource Nurse

Local nurses who can assist patients and their families who are affected by Cancer.

- To ensure those patients with cancer are referred to the appropriate services as close to home as possible
- Provide information regarding treatment such as surgery, chemotherapy, and radiotherapy and hormone therapy.
- Provide information and contacts for cancer services; locally, regionally and state-wide as necessary.
- To see patients in the Wellness Centre or in your home
- The Cancer Resource Nurse covers the following areas: Maryborough, Avoca, Carisbrook, Talbot, Dunolly, Bealiba, Natta Yallock, Timor, Landsborough, Moonambel

Details

The Cancer Resource Nurse is available 5 days per fortnight

WHEN: Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday

WHERE: Wellness & Support Centre
75-87 Clarendon Street
Maryborough, Vic 3465

For further information, please contact:

Maryborough District Health Service
Community Services

(03) 5461 0333
sbartlett@mdhs.vic.gov.au

75-87 Clarendon Street
Maryborough, VIC 3465